If you or someone you know needs help, the Mental Health Line offers professional help and advice, and referrals to local mental health services. It is staffed by mental health professionals who will ask questions to determine if you or the person you are concerned about needs ongoing mental health care and how urgently it is needed. They can put you in contact with the most relevant mental health service for children, teens, adults and older people. The Mental Health Line is available to everyone in NSW and operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

McLean Care has been supporting older Australians within the Inverell community since 1953. Our Home Care Services enable older people to love their later life in their own home and we do this by providing tailored care services in consultation with each person to meet their individual needs.

These services focus on:

- Your Home
- Your Health
- Your well-being
- Your community and lifestyle

We employ a large team of local, experienced and qualified staff who care about providing professional services that our clients deserve.

Our services can be managed through government approved Home Care Packages or privately funded depending on the individual's assessment. McLean Care can support you through your aging journey so that you can continue to love your later life.
